Dear Community Official,

The South Central Assembly, with assistance from the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, is sponsoring a series of virtual meetings via Zoom Technology to help community agencies and the region respond to urgent housing and community development needs created by the Coronavirus Pandemic by sharing innovative approaches and best practices to common problems.

The Assembly will conduct its second Zoom meeting on June 18 to discuss Downtown and Small Business Recovery. The session is intended for local governments, Main Street and Elm Street organizations, community and economic development agencies, chambers of commerce, planning agencies, redevelopment authorities, financial institutions, and other small business assistance organizations. For further information and to register, please click on the link below.

We invite you or a representative from your organization to attend, and urge you to forward this to others who may find it useful.

Please let us know if you have any suggestions for future Zoom meetings in this informational series.

The Assembly wishes you and your communities well in this time of national distress.

Very Truly Yours,

Susan Armstrong, President
South Central Assembly
